Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 15-18 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art of record does not teach nor render obvious an oil pump drive assembly consisting of a housing having a sprocket side and a pump side, the sprocket side including a first bore and a third bore and the pump side including a second bore and a fourth bore; an oil pump; a drive shaft disposed in the housing and extending axially between a distal input end supported in the third bore on the sprocket side of the housing and an opposite pump end supported in the fourth bore on the pump side of the housing, the opposite pump end secured to the oil pump for actuating the oil pump in response to rotation of the drive shaft; a sprocket secured to the distal input end of the drive shaft; a gear assembly for transferring a force from the engine comprising a drive gear secured to the drive shaft between the pump and the distal input end and a driven gear engaged with the drive gear for rotation of the driven gear in response to rotation of the drive shaft; and a balance shaft disposed in the housing and extending axially between a gear end supported in the first bore on the sprocket side of the housing and an opposite distal end supported in the second bore on the pump side of the housing, the gear end secured to the driven gear for rotation with the driven gear in response to rotation of the drive shaft for dampening vibrations associated with the operation of the automobile engine, and the balance shaft supporting two axially spaced offset masses; the gear assembly positioned at the distal input end of the drive shaft and the oil pump positioned at the opposite pump end of the drive shaft for providing packaging space for the oil pump drive assembly.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
